Getting to St.Gallen and the Conference Venue

By plane

St.Gallen can be reached most easily through Zurich Airport (and a 1h direct train ride) or St.Gallen-Altenrhein Airport (and a 30m taxi ride).

Friedrichshafen and Memmingen are two additional airports in the larger region, however, they require a much more complicated and longer transfer to St.Gallen.

By train

Direct trains from Zurich run twice an hour and take up to 1:15h to reach St.Gallen.

From Munich, Germany you can take an Eurocity direct train four times a day. The ride takes ca. 3:15h.

By intercity bus

St.Gallen can be reached very affordably from Munich and Memmingen by intercity bus. From Munich, the drive takes about 3h.

By car

When coming from Zurich, take highway A1 and the exit at "Kreuzbleiche". Afterwards, head in the direction of "Zentrum, Trogen".

When taking the A1 from Chur, get off at exit "St. Fiden". Afterwards, head towards "Zentrum, Trogen".

Nearby parking garages are "Einstein", "Brühltor", "Burggraben" and "Spiesertor". Each one is about a five minute walk to the conference venue.

To the conference venue from the train station

The conference venue "Kantonsratssaal" is within 10 minutes walking distance. Take a left on the square in front of the train station, then walk 300m passed the Hotel Walhalla (Poststrasse) until you reach traffic light. Cross the street and turn to the right. Walk alongside this street until you reach the UBS. Turn left and walk straight through the pedestrian street (Multergasse) until you get to the crossing next to a big book store (Rösslitor). Now turn right and head to the abbey. Turn left and walk to the archway of the government building, where you will find the entrance.

Taxis

Taxis are readily available within St.Gallen. Taxi Frosch (+41 / 71 / 500 50 50) and Taxi Herold (+41 / 71 / 222 27 77) are two larger taxi companies.
