Getting to St.Gallen and the ICF Forum venue

By plane

St.Gallen can be reached via Zurich Airport followed by an approximately 1:00 hour direct train ride to St.Gallen. St.Gallen-Altenrhein Airport (is approximately 30 minutes taxi ride away from St.Gallen). Friedrichshafen and Memmingen are two additional nearby airports in Germany, however, they require a longer transfer to St.Gallen.

By intercity bus

St.Gallen can be reached by intercity bus from Munich, Bregenz and Memmingen. From Munich, the drive takes about 3 hours.

By car

Coming from Zurich, take highway A1 and the exit at "Kreuzbleiche". Afterwards, head in the direction of "Zentrum, Trogen". When taking the A1 from Chur, get off at exit "St. Fiden". Afterwards, head towards "Zentrum, Trogen".

Nearby parking garages are "Einstein", "Brühltor", "Burggraben" and "Spiesertor". Each one is about a five minutes walk to the ICF Forum venue.

To the ICF Forum venue from the train station

The ICF Forum venue "Kantonsratssaal" is within 15 minutes walking distance. Take a left on the square in front of the train station, then walk 300m passing Hotel Walhalla (Poststrasse) until you reach a traffic light. Cross the street and turn to the right. Walk alongside this street until you reach the UBS bank. Turn left and walk straight through the pedestrian street (Multergasse) until you get to the crossing next to a big book store (Rösslitor). Now turn right and head to the abbey. Turn left and walk to the archway of the government building, where you will find the entrance.

Taxis

Taxis are readily available within St.Gallen. Taxi Frosch (+41 / 71 / 500 50 50) and Taxi Herold (+41 / 71 / 222 27 77) are two larger taxi companies.
